

Recyclables from A to Z

You can recycle just about any dry waste that comes through your business. Here is a list of common business recyclables.

- A. Aluminum, asphalt, asphalt shingles
- B. Batteries, bead board, building salvage, bricks
- C. Cardboard, carpet, carpet padding, cell phones, cement, ceramic tiles, clothing, coal, computers, computer peripherals, compost, construction materials, concrete, crushed rock
- D. Demolition materials, dirt, drywall, dry waste materials
- E. Electronics, engineered wood
- F. Ferrous metals, fiberboard, fiberglass insulation, firewood, florescent tubes, foam padding, furniture
- G. Glass, granite, gypsum drywall
- H. Homebuilding salvage, hard drives
- I. Ink cartridges, insulation, iron
- J. Junk mail
- K. Kitchen appliances, kitchenware, knits
- L. Leather, light bulbs, lighting fixtures, linoleum, lumber
- M. Metals, mobile phone
- N. Nails, Nonferrous metals
- O. Office paper, oil and oil filters
- P. Packaging, pallets, paper, plastic, petroleum, polystyrene (foam, block), polyurethane (e.g., foam padding, carpet padding), porcelain
- Q. Quartz, quality recyclables, quarry stone
- R. Refrigerators, roofing materials, rubber
- S. Sawdust, shingles, shredded paper, scrap metal, steel
- T. Telephones, telephone books, textiles, tiles, timber, tin, tires, tools, toner cartridges
- U. Utility poles, umbrellas, underbrush, undercarriages, uniforms
- V. Vehicles, video terminals, video cameras,
- W. Wallboard, white goods, wood
- X. Xerox® machines
- Y. Yard debris, yellow pages
- Z. Zippers, zip ties

To learn more, visit: www.bottomlinecycling.com

